RULE 1.09 Electronic Filing

(A) The clerk shall provide electronic filing service to all court users for all documents in any category of cases or any particular case as designated by an administrative order of the presiding judge.

(B) In matters where electronic filing is authorized by administrative order, the electronically filed document will be part of the official court record. Paper records, if maintained, will be considered a copy of the official court record.

(C) The following definitions shall apply herein, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Electronic filing" means the transmission of a digitized source document electronically via the Internet to the clerk for the purpose of filing the document and refers to the means of transmission or to a document so transmitted.

(2) "Electronic mail" means messages sent by a user and received by another through an electronic service system utilizing the Internet. Any communication sent to the court by electronic mail is not considered a legal communication of any form and will not be received or ruled upon by a judge or entered into the court record.

(3) "Document" means any pleading, motion, exhibit, declaration, affidavit, memorandum, paper or photographic exhibit, order, notice, and any other filing by or to the court, except trial exhibits that have not yet been admitted into evidence by the court.

(D) All electronically filed pleadings must be signed by an attorney admitted to practice in the State of Ohio or party not represented by such an attorney.

(1) Any signature on electronically transmitted documents shall be considered that of the attorney or party it purports to be for all purposes. If it is established that the documents were transmitted without authority, the court shall order the document stricken.

(2) No attorney shall authorize anyone to electronically file on that attorney's behalf, other than his/her employee or a service provider retained to assist in electronic filing.

(3) The electronic filing of a document by an attorney, or by another under the authorization of said attorney, or by a party not represented by an attorney shall constitute a signature of that attorney or party under Ohio Civil Rule 11.

(4) No person shall utilize, or allow another person to utilize, the password of another in connection with electronic filing.

(E) The electronic filing service shall be available during normal Court hours of Monday through Friday from 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Documents transmitted outside of regular court hours shall be deemed filed on the next normal business day of the clerk.

(F) A document electronically filed shall be accepted as the original filing if the filer complies with all of the requirements set forth in this rule. The filer shall not be required to file the source document with the clerk but must maintain same in the filer's records, and have same available for production on request of the court, the clerk or other counsel. The filer shall maintain the source document until the subject case is closed and all appeals and opportunities for appeal have been exhausted.

(G) The filer electronically filing a document shall also complete an on-line Document Description Form containing the following information:

- (1) The title of the case;
- (2) The case number;
- (3) The assigned judge;
- (4) The title of the document being filed;
- (5) The date of transmission;
- (6) An indication that a judge or case number has not been assigned, if applicable;
- (7) The name, address, telephone number, fax number, and, if available, the e-mail address of the person filing the document, and
- (8) For an attorney, his or her Ohio Supreme Court registration number and firm name, if any.

(H) In the event a document is electronically filed without or with an incomplete Document Description Form, the clerk shall reject said document and the clerk shall notify the filer via electronic mail of said rejection.

(I) A transaction number will be assigned to each document when it is received in its entirety by the receiving device of the clerk. The transaction number and the date and time of filing will be displayed on the screen of the filer's computer, with an image of the document filed, upon successful transmission of the document. Filers will be notified via electronic mail if the filing is rejected for any reason. A corrective filing may be sent at a later time if the filer elects to do so, but such a filing will be considered a new filing and will not relate back to the date and time of the original attempt to file the document. If a document is rejected due to technical errors and the filer wishes to have the corrective filing relate back as to date and time, the filer must file a motion with the court seeking such relief.

(J) The clerk shall retain rejected documents for a period of one year from the date of transmission.

(K) Any attorney, party or other person who elects to file any document electronically shall be responsible for any delay, disruption, interruption of the electronic signals, and readability of the document, and accepts the full risk that the document may not be properly filed with the clerk as a result.

(L) Normal filing fees, deposits, and copy costs will be collected by the Clerk via cash, credit card or IOLTA checks only (no personal or business checks). Any document filed electronically that requires a filing fee may be rejected by the Clerk unless the filer has complied with the mechanism established by the court for the payment of filing fees.

(M) Documents submitted must be in a digitized format specified by the Judge.

(N) Documents filed with the court shall be served in accordance with Ohio Civil Rule 5 and Ohio Criminal Rule 49 unless an attorney or a party not represented by an attorney has filed an electronic mail address with the court. Where an electronic mail address has been filed with the court by affixing the same to any document or by the filing of a separate notice of electronic mail address, service on the attorney or party by electronic mail shall constitute service pursuant to Ohio Civil Rule 5 and Ohio Criminal Rule 49 but shall not entitle the attorney or party to the additional three (3) days provided by Ohio Civil Rule 6(E). Documents served electronically shall contain proof of service setting forth the electronic mail address at which the attorney or party was served.

Thirty (30) days after the complaint is issued, the clerk shall check the docket to determine whether service was perfected on all parties. In the event service has not been perfected on some or all of the defendants, the clerk shall notify plaintiff or plaintiff’s counsel and request that an alias summons be issued to the defendant(s) proper address or request personal service by the bailiff at a location the defendant(s) may be found. (2) In the event a party defendant fails, refuses and/or neglects to answer a complaint within twenty-eight (28) days after service, the plaintiff or plaintiff’s counsel shall file a motion for default judgment within a period of forty-five (45) days thereafter and the failure to do so may result in the court sua sponte dismissing plaintiff’s action against the defendant.

(3) The clerk of Court shall deliver any motion to the judge within two (2) day after the filing and the judge shall enter his ruling thereon within seven (7) days thereafter, unless a responsive pleading is filed or the Court grants leave for a responsive pleading to be filed.

(4) Ohio R. Civ. Pro. 12 will be strictly enforced. If any additional extension is requested, the party desiring the extension must obtain the approval of the Court.

(5) The clerk shall pull all cases where there has been no activity for a period of six (6) months. Counsel is expected to comply with discovery requirements as notated in the pre-trial report. Counsel conducts "informal discovery" at his/her own peril because "informal discovery" is no substitute for the formal discovery process.

Discovery disputes may be brought to the Court's attention by appropriate motion, subject to the provisions of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedures and other provisions of applicable law. The Court will consider appropriate sanctions to parties or their counsel for failure to respond to discovery requests. In the case of a corporate or partnership party, sanctions may be made applicable to officers, partners, agents or employees.

(3) Pre-Trial Hearings.

Unless otherwise instructed and/or so ordered by the Court, counsel shall appear with clients at the final pretrial. At the final pretrial conference, at least one of the attorneys for each party shall have authority to:

- (i) settle the case;
- (ii) enter into stipulations; and
- (iii) make admissions regarding all matters that participants may reasonably anticipate will be discussed.

(C) Dispositive Motions

(1) Motions for Default Judgment

When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought, has failed to plead or otherwise defend as provided by the civil rules, the party entitled to a judgment by default shall promptly apply in writing or orally to the trial judge within forty-five (45) days after the date upon which the defaulting party should have plead or otherwise defended. No judgment by defendant shall be entered against a minor or an incompetent person unless represented in the action by a guardian or other representative who has appeared. If a party against whom judgment by default is sought has appeared in the action, written notice of the hearing on the motion along with the date and time fixed by the assignment clerk with the concurrence of the trial judge shall be served upon that party. In order for the trial judge to award damages and enter judgment, to establish the truth of any averment by evidence, or to make inquiry of any other matter, the trial judge may conduct hearings or order references, as necessary and proper, and shall, when applicable, accord a right of trial by jury to the parties.

(2) Summary Judgment Motions

All motions for summary judgment filed pursuant to Rule 56 of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure shall be deemed submitted to the judge seventeen (17) days thereafter and referred to as the “hearing” date. In the motion, the attorney shall represent that he notified his client in writing that he is no longer willing to provide further legal services for his benefit; that counsel informed his client that his client should immediately secure the assistance of other competent counsel and further informed his client of any upcoming dates his client is required to attend.

Said motion shall be filed more than ten (10) days before the next scheduled appearance date.

In cases in which the Court has issued a writ of restitution in actions in forcible entry and detainer, it shall be the responsibility of the Plaintiff or his/her agents to provide for the actual moving out of the Defendant from the residence premises, including the post move-out storage of any personal property of the Defendant. The Clerk of Court shall schedule the move-out and a Bailiff shall actually be in attendance at the time of the execution of the writ of restitution but shall not make advance arrangements for movers or actually conduct the move-out. The Plaintiff or his/her agents shall at this time cause all the locks to be changed or have a locksmith. The Court is not responsible for any damage or injury resulting from executing the writ. Nothing in this rule shall prevent a party from recovering the costs of restitution of premises as damages or court costs in an appropriate case pursuant to law.

RULE 2.04 Trials on Forcible Entry and Detainer Action

Upon the filing of a complaint which includes a count in forcible entry and detainer, the clerk shall bifurcate the hearings by way of setting the forcible entry and detainer count within the time prescribed by law and setting the breach of contract count more than 30 days thereafter. Further, the clerk shall notify the tenant(s) in the body of the summons the date, time and place of each of said hearings.

In addition, the tenant shall post a bond to secure future rent and damages in an amount prescribed by law. In the event all the foregoing conditions have been met, the clerk shall place the forcible entry and detainer case on the jury trial docket and notice each party of the date and time of trial.

RULE 2.06 Continuances – Forcible Entry and Detainer Cases

A motion to continue a forcible entry and detainer case shall be filed not less than three (3) days prior to the date of trial; shall be made in writing specifically setting forth the reason(s) for the request; and shall be accompanied by a motion fee as prescribed in the cost structure of these rules. Said motion shall not be effective unless and until approved by the Judge or Magistrate. Further, the Judge and Magistrate in their discretion may grant the motion subject to conditions including but not limited to requiring the movant to post a bond in a specific amount.

RULE 2.07 Action on Account
